I look forward to playing the daily challenges every day and see the neat picture at the end of the month after completing all the daily challenges. However, after completing the challenges for September, the October calendar now shows all the dates in the calendar with a key. The game allows me to select select and play the game, but as soon as the game is complete, the whole game freezes! No reward! I have to get out of the game and restart it. Then it shows that I haven't even started the daily challenge! I reworked the same puzzle 4 or 5 times! I've tried everything I can think of, including restarting my phone! I still haven't had any luck. I would love to lose one of my favorite games, but this is quite frustrating to make me want to ditch it! Does anyone else have this problem? UPDATE: The support team solved the problem! My daily challenge is working again! Thank! Now I can enjoy my game again! Hate! Hello, problem solved. The new version is now! are not even super disturbing or anything! It's worth a try! by mediumssatan on 2020/02/21 14:30 This used to be my favorite app; there were no ads and if you couldn't finish a level because of how your computer generated the level, you were able to mix tiles for free. Now the app is outdated with ads and if you need to mix you have to pay for it or watch yet another ad. Also?????? I made 1-3 purchases in the app to remove ads and hit restoration purchases several times and I still haven't received my purchases. No. And yes, I had the fees coming out of my bank. So?? I wish there was a way to get those refunded or to get my real purchases, so I don't have to have all these ads. Anyway, I'm very disappointed and I wish I could reset this app to the way it was a year or two ago before all the recent updates. Very sad. by Lakeside Red on 2019/02/13 18:03 Tons of fun!!! A great way to challenge yourself and that special someone See who can get a better score for each level. We highly recommend that you pay $1.99 to remove boring ads. The game is free and the company needs to get resources somewhere to keep putting these games online for our pleasure. I like Bimango games. Some sites don't allow you to remove ads. When that happens, I delete the game. Hold on to the big Bimango thing. Don't change the classic games, please. I like them because. That. Original. by Zama-Shi on 2019/01/29 08:33 Panels attract you to make quick movements. Some of the tiles resemble each other, but they're not, so you need to try fast and scan and move quickly. Being over 70, I think it makes me feel good when I can think and move quickly and I laugh at myself when I don't. At least I have an excuse! (HAHA!) What's yours? Kidding! Enjoy! Maybe, eat a bowl of ramen or some kimchi for inspiration. Bottom line, enjoy and when you get stuck for a few seconds, just think of me and laugh, then hurry up and keep playing! by Zach's Nana on 2020/02/27 21:31 All through my growing years I've heard about Chinese and yiddish ladies playing Mahjong, but I never knew what it was all about. And I had no desire to find out. I don't know what made me try it now, but I'm glad I did. I don't play stupid Candy Crush games and those like it. I usually just play puns, but this is an exercise for the mind and when you get to be my age you need to exercise your mind as well as your body. After they say... if you don't use it, you lose it. by Hotspurnia on 2020/10/29 05:35 Of all the horribleness of this CFH (contagion from hell) my games playing on my iPhone ... I'm a retired teacher, but I'm acting like a 12 year old who just got her first smart phone call and in a contest with her other friends in the same category. Anyway ... When this pandemic is removed from this planet, I'm still going to want to play this game. It's relaxing, but it still makes me think fast and keeps me from having to take an OTC sleep aid. Perhaps it will reinforce my desire to play Mahjong with the ladies of my various church groups, by Steelet on 2020/01/08 15:44 Since the last iOS update at 13.3, on an iPhone 8, the screen often becomes empty (black) after an ad, when it should be setting up a new board. The application crashes completely and backing out and restarting it does not help. Only the full reset of the phone deletes the problem until it clears again. I've since discovered this issue with other gaming apps as well, so it seems to be directly related to the latest iOS update in conflict with these apps. The developer responded the same way, and says it is working on a solution. by gt2skis on 2019/07/05 01:02 I love the game, but kept booting out when I'm about 2/3 to 3/4 through. It's clearly a problem because it happens too often. I lost a competitor for that reason, he just deleted the game. Dear Apple, my comments are not meant to be negative for the developer. In fact, I have already contacted them and received a large and timely response. I wasn't aware of this review went straight to Apple or I wouldn't have passed it along like I did. I still love the game and keep playing. I look forward to a fix and will information from them when Thomas of Swanwomyn is complete on 2020/11/30 00:27 I've been playing this game for some time now. I really enjoyed the game itself. Dalele Dalele Intelligently arranged in interesting shapes and can develop strategies to improve speed and accuracy as we go through each level. On the other hand, the game requires much more data usage than it should. Incessant ads frequently freeze up my device and require a reboot unlike any other game. Now that I've reached a level for which it's apparently mathematically impossible for me to earn enough stars to move to the next level, I'll be erasing it as soon as I'm done with that. by Angelus80 on 2019/12/23 01:19 This is one of the best Mahjong & #39; games I've played in a while. It& #39; fun, not complicated, but not too easy either. & #39; I wasn't asked to buy anything, which is awesome. You look at the ads if you want to double the reward (stars), which they do because you can use them for clues and mixing tiles. There are also daily games and quests you can do, they & #39;re not necessary to advance as far as I can tell, but just additional fun. So far, & #39; I have no problems and I would recommend this game. of tunezee on 2020/12/07 19:30 I still do not feel like I know what all the rules are, but with the tiles highlighted, this game moves very fast and is addictive. I bought a coin pack so I didn't have to deal with added and it was worth it. I love how simple the background is. I like the gold bars that go over the top of the screen to let you know what you do. I've never played this tiled game, but I'm now considering it. Thanks for such a fun game on a great platform. by mardugan71 on 2020/02/05 03:58 This is the best Mahjong game I've played on mobile. The tiles are clear and easy to see. I love to play a relaxed game and there is no bonus multiplier encouraging me to go faster and faster and I love that. Just a personal preference of mine. You have a higher rating for finishing a board in a time limit, but it's not in front of you. You can pay $1.99 to turn off ads, which is super important to me. The game is perfect so it is, but if you were to suggest anything, there would be a few additional tile sets, by TickledRick on 2020/10/08 20:01 Love Game! However, I need several puzzles to continue to enjoy. I'm once again asking for more puzzles. We've completed 34 packages with perfect scores, plus 9 premium packages with perfect scores and daily puzzles completed through 2018..... Okay, so I'm & #39; addicted. Although with & #34;social distance& #34; & #34;& #34;& #34;& #34; stay at home orders & #34;: This game has become a daily blessing to fill the void. So before you start to experience withdrawal symptoms, please send more. That's how I opened my iPad I appreciate the notes saying you want to play more Mahjong and & #39; ready to do so. My answer is back for more packages so it was five months ago. So it is now that I have not received any additional games, so maybe you would appreciate not sending the notes because & #39;m not receive games. Thank..... by chwetzel on 2018/02/26 19:24 Is you would expect from a game Mahjong Solitaire, tons of levels, daily games, reasonable price to remove ads, although there are ads that you are still stuck watching in order to mix the board, which seems fake because you paid to remove the ads, and the only other place for improvement is that occasionally the game fails to and leaves you with a blank green screen with just a timer and you are forced to force and start the last level everywhere again. cpalme on 2020/02/21 02:15 I love this game and different puzzles. They are varied and challenging I wish there was an annulment. I also discovered a bug where once you buy a package, the ads don't disappear. Also, when I need to mix will, (apparently) randomly need me to watch a video. When I did, I contact the support they were very frustrating. Obviously, they didn't speak English very well. It takes more unnecessary messages back and forth before you finally get a resolution. Now that it's resolved, I like the forcingouloud on 2019/10/01 17:14 I love Majong, however the developer has to tweak errors; for example, I played the daily challenge 3 times this a.m. & #39;; after successfully completing, every time the screen has frozen ... this also happened during other games where there was obviously a match & #39;. I had to close several & #39; games reopen the app to play ... a prompt to return to the main menu w/o having to close the app would be nice... in the hope that this will be sent, I have introduced several (I know not taken) nicknames & #39;; keeping get the message we've been using® by Atherton AR on 2019/06/07 21:23 I love this app. It provides time limits to beat for each game that are achievable at least in the first level of 90 games. There are a lot of ads, so I bought the ads for free for $1.99. However, that turns out to still show ads if you need a shuffle or if you want to play the game of the day for previous days. I haven't seen any warning about this and it's annoying not knowing what you're paying for. If there really were ads I would miss this 5 stars. Perhaps there should be another higher level of payment for totally free ads. South Mind on 2020/04/18 08:22 I just started matching tiles without checking the positions and was ending up being knocked out. I even started checking the layout before I started and they removed the tiles each time, except twice to not check the positions. I'm kind of slow and time showing, but I'm working on it. I love this game, but I can't stand my time. Thanks for the game. A few years ago it would have been easy. My brain works Fast, Andy, so go it's not the game, but my hand, I can't use my finger, I have to use a stylus and keep throwing it away. So it takes me longer. Again0 Thanks for the game. I'd like to wish you and your family health and keep each other close. For now Taffy (my sweet bichon/poodle) and I'm alone, so the game keeps me from having to think, so thanks. by Mrs. G Rod on 2019/10/05 20:05 Hi, I played this game for some and although it was only updated a day ago, I still don't know where the game is finished. Nor on the daily page or any other levels. Please see if there is anything that can be done with this problem. I don't want to delete this game because it's one of my favorites, but you might have no choice but to do so if the problem can't be solved. Thank. by Dougie b23 on 2020/01/02 06:01 Is there any new daily being made or am I not allowed to get the latest version? & #39; I've tried to catch up with all the old daily southerns exist because I think the calendar images are fun to fill out, given that you have a smaller goal of working towards and you& #39; actually given a visual, but my new daily sonander ends with the end of the year, also, since I finally got around to writing a review, I had a few ideas: 1) in other games, instead of yours I automatically get a smaller silver star that I hate, just because I was & #39; still playing, I can pay a small fee of 25 coins to play older dailies and still get the maximum amount of stars 2) instead of saying level failed, I always think & #39; it's nice when games ask & #34;try again?& #34; small thing, but just thought you& #39; I'd like to know 3) i don& #39;t have a next button, and that I have to t to t to gosen to the calendar to click the next puzzle 4) it would be nice if best times could be shown at click to date thank you © by Mommyof2girlz22 on 2019/07/18 14:22 I love to play this game! Even my daughter to sing it. Love different levels. I'm also glad you can go back and remake the ones that you didn't score so well on. The ads were driving me crazy (one after each game, for least 30 seconds each) until I read a review and said to pay $1.99 to stop the ads. I did that and I'm still receiving ads. In fact, I saw that others had the same problem, but stupid assumed me because developers could see comments they would solve. That's not the case. I want $ back if I'm still going to get ads! by Alialaskan on 2018/03/08 02:36 I like mahjong and I really like the way the board lights up allowing me to know which of them may be suitable. $1.99 was a reasonable price to get rid of these boring ads. Through the first section and enjoy that there are some that are so challenging I have to take a break because I failed so much and then I go back to it and finish a minute under and cant figure out why I've been having so much trouble before. Very nice!! why on 2019/05/20 16:36 I love this game, they tried to play it three times just to get a black screen with a white/blue circle of rotation, so you can't get back to the game. Emailed about this issue. No response and still has not established glitch. Three times from the beginning. I'm done. Update: I contacted the developer and my problems with the game were quickly resolved. Thank you so much! by Seattle Portista on 2018/02/13 23:45 Is that there are ads- I expect that from a free game. However, these ads appear not only between each new panel, but also every time you need to shuffle. These are not short ads, there would be only one page for a product. No, these are games ads that go on endlessly. To really ensure user agony, the company only makes a few games, so you get to see the same ads over and over. I could give them money to stop the ads, but that felt too much like rewarding their behavior. Instead, I deleted the game. It's not like and there wouldn't be 500 mahjong games out there... by Samadamhoni on 2020/03/15 01:25 I love the game and it's addictive. But the only problem I have is when my phone goes into sleep mode or reset the board changes time and start with another time. For example, the time to complete with 3 stars is 5:25 I reset the board or the phone going into sleep mode should start at 0:00 or continue the time from the time it was interrupted or went into sleep mode on the return and I want to continue the game and finish the time would start with 3:00 or more. Please fix this. by aaeakkkksksksksks on 2020/09/27 18:33 This is one of my favorite games to play and I play all the time, but sometimes there is an error where the time of the last round wears over in the next round. (For example, I finished a round with 1:45 time, and then when I started the next round, the time started at 1:45.) it's a bit annoying when I have to restart the round, but it's not that big of a deal in general. I hope I explained it well. But still great game :-: by dogsdrills on 2019/07/03 21:38 This is a perfect game for seniors like me because the tiles are big enough and bold enough to see easily. The only complaint I had and the only reason I deleted it for a bit is because it disappears in the middle of a game and you have to start all over again. I made the connection with you about this problem a while ago, but I see it hasn't been solved. I have tried many other Majong games and even with glitch I find the best of all the other deawees on 2019/06/05 23:22 This version of Mahjong is brilliant, I can not lose. This version has levels beyond levels, but I must confess that it seems to be geared towards the beginning levels, I have already completed 270 levels and with the exception of one of the levels I have three stars for each level. If you could do coding for a Mahjong 3D, that would be great. I'll say that compared to other Mahjong games this is my favorite, even if it's pretty easy. I'll find out after several levels. Love it, love it by kaybuggerson on 2020/02/03 03:28 OMG I love this game is very calming to me and that's like eye plays you have to work with eye muscles :- but I really like it! You can make that one with game modes and challenges with real people!!! That would be cool! It could be tournaments and battle regals or something! But in general, this is also amazing game! I love it! I'd appreciate it if you did. You, this (can even respond and actually take ideas) thanks to keep up with the good work! God bless you! by ZoeGlow on 2019/06/14 02:55 When I'm bored and I want to do something to make me think, I go straight so this app. I love that it has many levels and each level offers something different. Another reason I love this game is, the fact that it doesn't have so many ads, all these other games has so many ads and this game doesn't. I totally recommend it anyone 10 and up because this game requires some focus. ☺ of good goo goo on 2019/05/30 20:36 This is a fun matching game that we've got and really enjoy. It doesn't push ads in front of you like most other mobile games do. Of the 30-40 minutes I played in this game I didn't even have an ad. It starts easily and constantly picks up the pace. It's a great game for non-gamers and it's kinda peaceful to play if you're not trying to complete the challenges the time it gives you for each level. by Majhonglvr on 2018/08/10 17:20 I really like this game! Additional packages are very affordable and with time to beat gives you a great challenge! The only thing I wish he had was a tile counter. You know, put the amount of tiles to start with and count it down when you make a match so you can see how many matches are left before mixing. I'm an advanced mahjong player and I really don't enjoy this game. Add more expansion packages!!! © by DL Peters on 2020/02/15 09:12 I love playing this game! Sometimes it's super frustrating trying to find matches, but I feel like it's such a good exercise for my 64-year-old brain. That's part of my daily routine right now. Everyone of a certain age should do to stay sharp! I almost gave it 4 stars because of the ads, but you really need them in between games to give yourself a rest for the next round. by Paladin2019 on 2020/06/30 14:58 It seems to me that this game increases decision skills. You need a strategy so you don't run out of matches by getting matching pieces buried under each other, but you also need to remember lay the board to find matching pieces quickly. (If you accidentally hit the reshuffle in the middle of a game you will understand). It also takes your mind off other issues so you can focus. Good game! by Joebro917 on 2019/01/28 05:37 So far, I love this Mahjong app because they don't seem to be asking to buy chips and coins etc. I've only tried the first two levels, but it seems very easy to run through a game in 2 minutes or less. I hope it's more difficult. I'd give five stars, but tile graphics are pretty simple, and it would be nice if they was a little more colorful and interesting. I think I'm sticking to true Chinese mahjong symbols. jkgoot on 2020/10/22 20:02 I play this a lot, but it has an error that frustrates me. In the game, collect coins each time you complete a session. You spend coins for a hint or mixing tiles. You have the option to double the coins because by clicking a button and watching an ad. Recently, many times when I click to double, the app freezes and I lost any coins I could have won for the session. You might end up deleting the app because of it. Fix it, please! Please!
